

Group fairy tales in class

Class B1- Aetoliko High School

Once upon a time, there was a little girl called Elpida, who had a very long hair and lived on Mars. She had green skin, four eyes, three legs and she cooked very well. Her dream was to visit Parliaros. She found a wizard who made her dream come true, in exchange for a six-storey chocolate cake and a bowl of salt.

He took her to Earth. She tried to find Parliaros, but a woman caught her and took her to Nasa to be studied.

Parliaros was there to find a new recipe for the astronauts. When Elpida saw Parliaros, she realized how ugly he was. She called the wizard and wished for him to make Parliaros as handsome as Stavros Sviggos. At once Parliaros became a cool boy and he started dancing ?break dance.?

Elpida tried to escape from her cage and the alarm went off. She fled to cave, opened a wooden door and she saw a wonderful landscape. There were waterfalls of chocolate, caramel paths and houses of ice-cream and realized that it was a present by Parliaros.

Parliaros dedicated a song to Elpida, entitled ?I love you baby? and she dedicated back to him the song ?Love said no,? so they took their separate ways.

Elpida woke up on Mars.

Class B2- Aetoliko High School

It was a black and cold rainy night.

Somewhere in England there was a big company of teenagers who were placing bets and drinking beer. They were in a house, and suddenly they heard a noise out of the window. They saw a dark shadow moving into the house. They started betting on who the shadow was. They flipped a coin to decide who was to find out what it was. And it was Luke's turn to go, who extremely cowardly. He didn't want to go, but he realized that he could do it, so he acted as if it were only a game. He remembered a similar situation he had been in, he pulled himself together, opened the door and saw a cat skating away with a fish in its mouth. The cat got scared and escaped from the pet door in the entrance. He burst out laughing and went back to his friends, only to find they had turned into aliens. They had the head of a cat, three legs and two horns on their cat-heads.

The alarm clock went off and he woke up hitting his head against the bedside table's drawer.

Class B3- Aetoliko High School

Once upon a time, there was a little boy called Jack. He found a flying magic broom and he decided to explore the world on it.

Then the magic broom was broken by thunder and it fell on China. He landed on a fat man who was walking along the Great Wall and realized that he had a big problem. The man was a guard of the Wall and he started chasing Jack. So, he hid behind a tourist. The guard was looking for Jack, but he managed to escape, and he jumped over the Great Wall and hit the ground. He saw a witch holding his magic broom. She put a spell on it and the two pieces were joined
